

THE KENTUCKY TRIBUNE.

JNO. F. ZIMMERMAN & SON,
$2.00 PER ANNUM,

VOL. IX--NO. 45.

THE WEEKLY TRIBUNE.
PUBLISHED EVERY FRIDAY MORNING, AT THE
OFFICE ON THIRD STREET, NORTH OF Main,
DANVILLE, KY.

JNO. F. ZIMMERMAN,
JNO. F. ZIMMERMAN & SON,
EDITORS AND PROPRIETORS.

TERMS.
Per annum, in advance, $2.00
Within six months, $1.50
At the end of the year, $2.00

TO OURS.
Three copies for $5.00, only $1.66 each.
Five " " 8.00, " 1.60 "
Ten " " 15.00, " 2.50 "
Fifteen " " 23.00, " 3.50 "
Twenty " " 30.00, " 4.00 "
Thirty " " 50.00, " 5.00 "

17 Any person procuring us FIVE subscribers and remitting us $10, will receive a copy gratis.

32 We will give one copy of the Tribune, and one copy of either Graham's, Godley's, or Sartain's Magazine, one year, for $4.

17 No paper discontinued until all arrears are paid, except at the option of the publishers.

ADVERTISING.

For each square of 12 lines or less, first insertion, $1.00
Each additional insertion, 25
Post and Processing Notices, each, 1.50
For 12 lines, or less, for 3 months, 4.00
For 12 lines, or less, for 6 months, 7.50
For 12 lines or less, for 12 months, 10.00
One column for 12 months, 50.00
Half a column for 12 months, or a column for 6 months, 35.00
Quarter of a column for 12 months or a column for 3 months, 25.00
Advertisements of a personal character charged double.
Announcing a candidate for any office, $1.00
Continuing same until the election, 1.00
Announcement Fees to be paid in advance.

JOB WORK.
Plain and fancy Book and Job Printing, of every description, such as:

BOOKS,
PAMPHLETS,
COURT CARDS,
CARDS--ALL SIZES,
BALL TICKETS,
ELECTION TICKETS,
BLANKS, ETC., ETC.
Executed with neatness and dispatch.
Tribune Office. Give us a trial.

POETICAL:
OUR CHILDHOOD.

BY GEO. D. PRENTICE.

Tis sweet, yet sweet to listen
To soft words gently swell
And think we hear the music
Our childhood loves so well;

To gaze on the green,
And the boundless fields of air,
And feel again our boyhood's wish
To rove like angels there.

There's many dreams of gladness
That cling around the past--
And from the tomb of feeling
Old thoughts come thronging fast--

The forms we loved so dearly
In the happy days now gone,
The beautiful and lovely,
So fair to look upon.

Those bright and gentle maidens,
Who seemed so formed for bliss,
Too glorious and too heavenly
For such a world as this!

Whose dark soft eyes seemed swimming
In a sea of liquid light;
And whose locks of gold were streaming
Over brows so sunny bright.

Like the brightest buds of summer
They have fallen from the stem;
Yet oh! it is a lovely death
To fade from earth like them!

And yet the thought is saddening
To muse on such as they,
And feel that all the beautiful
Are passing fast away!

That the fair ones whom we love,
Grow to each loving breast,
Like tendrils of the clinging vine--
Then perish where they rest.

SONGSES."

BY SLOUCH, SINGER.

Such a very proud female was Nancy Kerdif;

A very proud female was she--

With eyes so fine, and her manners so stiff;

A girl couldn't much please her;

Nancy Kerdif was adverse to a kiss;

But why, any lover could see;

But one simple fact will account for all this--

A gal what liked ongues was she.

FALL, OH, FALL.

BY CHARLES MACKAY.

Fall, ch, fall, ye words of anger,
Like the leaves when autumn blows;

Like the May-blooms in the river,
Like the moonlight on the snow.

Fall like seed in barren places;

Fall like rain-drops in the sea;

Like words too-dread to perish,

Lore between my 'tive and me.

But ye words of loving kindness,

Fall like grateful showers;

Like the frozen waters;

Like sweet music heard in pain;

Like the dew on opening roses;

Like the acorn from the tree,

Fall, ye accents of affection,

Fruitful to my love and me.

We cut the following advertisement from the Herald:

Lost on Wednesday last a bridle pup

With a switch tail--belonging to Patrick McNeil got his ears slit, is not stated.

When you go out to drown yourself,

Always pull off your clothes, they may fit

your wife's second husband.

Why are Mrs. Ellis wrings like the madly condition of streets? Because they tend to elevate female habits.

A Dutchman remarked the other day

that he could write as well with a pig pen

as a little pen.'

Coffee, is that the second hell? 'No

mass; dat's the second ringin' ob de fess bell.

We, haven't got no second bell in

dis are hotel!'

A Dutchman being called upon for a toast, said, 'Here is to do heroes who fight, pleat and trim the battle of Punker Hill, of whom I am von.'

A cheerful face is nearly as good for

as seeds, when sown, like gate-posts? They are planted in the earth to propagate prop a gate.

THE Weekly Whig Chronicler of the Times, the People, and the Country.
"WE SHALL ALWAYS BE VICTORIOUS WHEN WE ALL PULL TOGETHER!"

DANVILLE, KY., FRIDAY MORNING, JUNE 18, 1852.

PUBLISHERS:
IN ADVANCE.

WHOLE NO. 462.

THE WEEKLY TRIBUNE.
PUBLISHED EVERY FRIDAY MORNING, AT THE
OFFICE ON THIRD STREET, NORTH OF Main,
DANVILLE, KY.

JNO. F. ZIMMERMAN,
JNO. F. ZIMMERMAN & SON,
EDITORS AND PROPRIETORS.

TERMS.
Per annum, in advance, $2.00
Within six months, $1.50
At the end of the year, $2.00

TO OURS.
Three copies for $5.00, only $1.66 each.
Five " " 8.00, " 1.60 "
Ten " " 15.00, " 2.50 "
Fifteen " " 23.00, " 3.50 "
Twenty " " 30.00, " 4.00 "
Thirty " " 50.00, " 5.00 "

17 Any person procuring us FIVE subscribers and remitting us $10, will receive a copy gratis.

32 We will give one copy of the Tribune, and one copy of either Graham's, Godley's, or Sartain's Magazine, one year, for $4.

17 No paper discontinued until all arrears are paid, except at the option of the publishers.

ADVERTISING.

For each square of 12 lines or less, first insertion, $1.00
Each additional insertion, 25
Post and Processing Notices, each, 1.50
For 12 lines, or less, for 3 months, 4.00
For 12 lines, or less, for 6 months, 7.50
For 12 lines or less, for 12 months, 10.00
One column for 12 months, 50.00
Half a column for 12 months, or a column for 6 months, 35.00
Quarter of a column for 12 months or a column for 3 months, 25.00
Advertisements of a personal character charged double.
Announcing a candidate for any office, $1.00
Continuing same until the election, 1.00
Announcement Fees to be paid in advance.

JOB WORK.

Plain and fancy Book and Job Printing, of every description, such as:

BOOKS,
PAMPHLETS,
COURT CARDS,
CARDS--ALL SIZES,
BALL TICKETS,
ELECTION TICKETS,
BLANKS, ETC., ETC.
Executed with neatness and dispatch.
Tribune Office. Give us a trial.

POETICAL:
OUR CHILDHOOD.

BY GEO. D. PRENTICE.

Tis sweet, yet sweet to listen
To soft words gently swell
And think we hear the music
Our childhood loves so well;

To gaze on the green,
And the boundless fields of air,
And feel again our boyhood's wish
To rove like angels there.

There's many dreams of gladness
That cling around the past--
And from the tomb of feeling
Old thoughts come thronging fast--

The forms we loved so dearly
In the happy days now gone,
The beautiful and lovely,
So fair to look upon.

Those bright and gentle maidens,
Who seemed so formed for bliss,
Too glorious and too heavenly
For such a world as this!

Whose dark soft eyes seemed swimming
In a sea of liquid light;
And whose locks of gold were streaming
Over brows so sunny bright.

Like the brightest buds of summer
They have fallen from the stem;
Yet oh! it is a lovely death
To fade from earth like them!

And yet the thought is saddening
To muse on such as they,
And feel that all the beautiful
Are passing fast away!

That the fair ones whom we love,
Grow to each loving breast,
Like tendrils of the clinging vine--
Then perish where they rest.

SONGSES."

BY SLOUCH, SINGER.

Such a very proud female was Nancy Kerdif;

A very proud female was she--

With eyes so fine, and her manners so stiff;

A girl couldn't much please her;

Nancy Kerdif was adverse to a kiss;

But why, any lover could see;

But one simple fact will account for all this--

A gal what liked ongues was she.

FALL, OH, FALL.

BY CHARLES MACKAY.

Fall, ch, fall, ye words of anger,
Like the leaves when autumn blows;

Like the May-blooms in the river,
Like the moonlight on the snow.

Fall like seed in barren places;

Fall like rain-drops in the sea;

Like words too-dread to perish,

Lore between my 'tive and me.

But ye words of loving kindness,

Fall like grateful showers;

Like the frozen waters;

Like sweet music heard in pain;

Like the dew on opening roses;

Like the acorn from the tree,

Fall, ye accents of affection,

Fruitful to my love and me.

We cut the following advertisement from the Herald:

Lost on Wednesday last a bridle pup

With a switch tail--belonging to Patrick McNeil got his ears slit, is not stated.

When you go out to drown yourself,

Always pull off your clothes, they may fit

your wife's second husband.

Why are Mrs. Ellis wrings like the madly condition of streets? Because they tend to elevate female habits.

A Dutchman remarked the other day

that he could write as well with a pig pen

as a little pen.'

Coffee, is that the second hell? 'No

mass; dat's the second ringin' ob de fess bell.

We, haven't got no second bell in

dis are hotel!'

A Dutchman being called upon for a

toast, said, 'Here is to do heroes who

fight, pleat and trim the battle of Punker Hill, of whom I am von.'

A cheerful face is nearly as good for

as seeds, when sown, like gate-

THE TRIBUNE.

IN UNION THERE IS STRENGTH.
DANVILLE, K.Y.
Friday Morning June 18 1852.

Whig Ticket for 1852,
Subject to the decision of the Whig National Convention.

For President,
MILLARD FILLMORE,
of NEW YORK.

For Vice President,
JOHN J. RITTENDEN,
of KENTUCKY.

LADIES' FAIR.—We are requested to state that the Ladies of the Protestant Episcopal Church in this place, will hold a Fair on the day preceding and Commencement day of Centre College—Wednesday and Thursday, 23d and 24th inst. The proceeds of the Fair will be appropriated to repair and paint their church. We trust that the liberal patronage which they deserve, will be cheerfully extended to them.

CORRECTION.—We were in error last week in stating that the address of Rev. STUART R. BUNSON, before the Literary Societies of Centre College would be delivered on Tuesday evening, the 22d inst. We should have said Wednesday evening, the 23d.

COMMENCEMENT OF CENTRE COLLEGE.—The annual Commencement of Centre College will take place on Thursday next, the 24th. Addresses will be delivered by several members of the graduating class, which together with the other regular Commencement exercises, will render the occasion quite interesting.

ACTION.—The action late of Kendall & Co., which has created such an excitement among the ladies during the past week, will be continued on Monday next. They offer a splendid stock, which their past sales have not at all lessened, so far as regards quality, and variety. See advertisement.

ATTENTION, SOUTHERNERS.—A meeting of the stockholders of the Lexington and Danville Railroad will be held in this place on Tuesday next, the 22d inst., for the purpose of taking final action on the subject of the extension of said road to McMinnville, Tenn. Let every one attend.

—We print today a very interesting article from the pen of CRAVEN MILLER, Esq., of Maury county, on the subject of the proposed railroad from this place to McMinnville, Tenn. All who feel interested in said road, should give Mr. M.'s thoughts on the subject a careful perusal, as they are such as cannot fail to command themselves to the common sense of every man, however much he may be opposed to railroad improvements—though such men, we are glad to say, are becoming quite rare at this enlightened day.

RAILROAD MEETING.—A large meeting of the citizens of Claiborne county, Tenn., friend to the proposed railroad from Danville to Knoxville, was held on the 17th inst. The business of the day did not turn out well, and the junior will retire in private life.

NOMINATION OF VICE PRESIDENT.—The first ballot for Vice President, in the Whig Convention, resolved as follows:

W. H. King, of Alabama, 125; Wm. O. Butler, 21; Robert Young, 23; G. J. Pugh, 26; David B. Atchison, 25; Howell Cobb, 2; Gen. Rusk, 12; J. F. Davis, 2.

The Kentucky Delegation voted for Rusk and not for Butler, as has been stated.

On the second ballot, Wm. R. King, of Alabama, received 277 votes, and Jefferson Davis, of Mississippi, 11 from Illinois whereupon Mr. King was declared duly nominated.

FOR THE PLAINS.—A letter from Major Stein's command of recruits for the army in New Mexico, dated on the 20th ult., at Puebloan camp, sixty miles from Fort Leavenworth, mentions the death of fourteen of the command, by cholera, and another was not expected to survive. At the date of the letter one fourth of the whole number were on the sick report. This is dismal enough. The command was composed of about 300 men.

FROM CUBA.—Invasion Expected.—The New York Sun says that great excitement prevails throughout Cuba, from reports of another filibustering expedition from the United States. The steamers from the island, were watched with a strictness remarkable even for Havana. Members of the police were placed on board as soon as they arrived, and maintained the strictest surveillance of every boat and every thing up to the moment of departure. Fourteen young men of good connections were arrested, and were sent down for the dominion of the central power of Mexico, and established their independence. What the government can do to prevent it more, than it has one, does not appear.

His NAME.—The Locofofo quill-drivers in this State seemed, a week or two ago, to be at variance among themselves, as to the real name of their nominees for the Presidency. By one he was called H. N. Franklin Pierce, by another Gen. Franklin Pearce; by others F. O. Pierce, F. H. Pierce, and F. D. Pierce. Now, however, they all know him and can call him 'Frank Pierce' with as much familiarity and exactness as if they had known him intimately for half a century, and had even 'fought, bled and died' with him on the bloody fields of Mexico. Curious chaps, these Locofofo editors.

WE will state, for the satisfaction of friend Gibbons, of the Plumbago, that our remark last week to the effect that Pierce was 'not even a fourth or fifth-rate man' was intended only to refer to his prominence as a leading Democrat. We repeat it, and more, he is not even a 'fisherite man' in talents statesmanship, if we are allowed to consider that Cass, Buchanan, Douglass, Butler, Marey, &c., are not entirely deficient and are still favor of the Sub-Treasury. Resolutions of 1798, and endorsing the late Mexican War, and rejoicing at the restoration of peace, were also adopted. On the subject of the Compromise and Slavery, the following resolutions were passed:

Resolved, That Congress has no power under the Constitution to interfere with or control the domestic institutions of the several States, and that such States are the sole and proper judges of every thing appropriate by the Constitution, that all efforts of the Abolitionists or others made to induce Congress to interfere with questions of slavery, or to take independent steps in relation thereto, are calculated to lead to the most abominable and dangerous consequences; and that all such efforts have an inevitable tendency to diminish the happiness of the people, and endanger the stability and permanency of the Union and ought not to be countenanced by any friend of our political institutions.

Resolved, That the foregoing proposition covers, and was intended to embrace the whole subject of slavery situation in Congress; and therefore the Democratic party of the Union, standing upon this national platform, will abide by and adhere to a faithful execution of the new known as the Compromise measures, set by the last Congress—the act for the returning of fugitives from service or labor included—which act, being designed to carry out an express provision of the Constitution, cannot, with fidelity thereto, be repealed or so changed as to destroy or impair its efficiency.

Resolved, That the Democratic party will resist all attempts at rancor in Congress, or out of it, the agitators of the slavery question, under whatever shape or color the attempt may be made.

We are indebted to Jas. PARDUE, Esq., for a copy of the report of the President and Engineers of the Lexington and Danville Railroad Company, to the Stockholders. We have not yet had time to examine it, but when we do, we will take occasion to publish such extracts as may be deemed particularly interesting.

LATER.—A dispatch from Baltimore, dated 15th, says: "The general impression here is that Fillmore or Webster will be nominated." At the solicitation of the friends of the above enterprise, our fellow citizen, F. T. F. Esq., addressed the citizens in one of the most convincing and satisfactory display of eloquence and reason we have heard for a long time. All present were thoroughly satisfied from the facts presented that it's road, when completed, will be of incalculable advantage and that the stock will prove to be a good investment of capital.

LATER.—A dispatch from Baltimore, dated 15th, says: "The general impression here is that Fillmore or Webster will be nominated."

—In Cumberland, Clinton, and Adair counties the prospect for a crop of wheat is said to be very "gloomy indeed."

Pants are very scarce and backward, and there seems to be a disposition among planters not to raise the article.

GEN SCOTT AND THE COMPROMISE.—A dispatch from Washington, under date of the 7th, says: It is currently reported at the Capitol to day that F. H. W. W. has in his possession a letter from General Scott endorsing thoroughly it in the Democratic Convention, but what we have heard to date is that he will not be present at the meeting to which it is referred.

Those names, Pierce and King, will kindle a fire in the heart of Democracy which will not cease till the rotten remains of whiggery are burned up—and Gathlin, Anti-Americans, and all the branches of that political upstart shall be destroyed forever."

Of course everybody believes that the above professions of emancipation at being "stuffed" by an outsider, are entirely sincere. Of course they did.

RAILROAD CONVENTION AT RUSSELL SPRINGS.—A Railroad Convention of the friends of the proposed road from Danville to McMinnville, will be held at Russell Springs on the 3d day of July. The occasion will be a highly interesting one, as speeches will be delivered by several gentlemen well qualified to handle the subject. An immense crowd is expected, and if the day is all favorable, the meeting will equal in numbers and enthusiasm any ever held in the State.

French RAILROADS.—The Paris correspondent of the N. Y. Express says that the locomotives on the Orléans railroad have each been furnished with a small magnetic battery, and the engineers to be acquainted with the modus operandi.

All the electric lines in France follow the course of the railroad, so that at any point on the railroad the engineer may rig a communication between his machine and the wires, and announce to the station master before or by his arrival any accident that may have happened.

He may thus immediately call for any assistance he may require, and warn of approaching rains. The experiment has been already several times most successfully tried.

THE SETTING SUN.—Towards the close of the late Whig convention in Richmond, Va., the following resolution was offered by Raleigh T. Daniel, Esq., and was passed in a manner showing that all that was said was felt by the body there assembled:

Resolved, That neither time nor circumstance can erase from the hearts of the Whigs of this nation, their veneration for the character, and love and admiration of the genius and eloquence and statesmanship of Henry Clay.

Let others have the ringing.

We turn to him to whose race is run.

—The Washington correspondent of the Baltimore Sun, in his letter of the 15th inst., says: "To-morrow the House will probably act on the resolution fixing the day for the termination of the session. A paper was handed about the House a week ago, for the members to designate the time of adjournment, and a majority fixed the 15th of August. I presume that will be the day."

DIFFICULTIES WITH MEXICO.—A Washington dispatch bearing date of June 9 says: "It is believed that the Somme have been in executive session for the past two weeks, and are now in the dominion of the central power of Mexico, and establish their independence. What the government can do to prevent it more, than it has one, does not appear.

WE will state, for the satisfaction of friend Gibbons, of the Plumbago, that our remark last week to the effect that Pierce was 'not even a fourth or fifth-rate man' was intended only to refer to his prominence as a leading Democrat. We repeat it, and more, he is not even a 'fisherite man' in talents statesmanship, if we are allowed to consider that Cass, Buchanan, Douglass, Butler, Marey, &c., are not entirely deficient and are still favor of the Sub-Treasury. Resolutions of 1798, and endorsing the late Mexican War, and rejoicing at the restoration of peace, were also adopted. On the subject of the Compromise and Slavery, the following resolutions were passed:

Resolved, That Congress has no power under the Constitution to interfere with or control the domestic institutions of the several States, and that such States are the sole and proper judges of every thing appropriate by the Constitution, that all efforts of the Abolitionists or others made to induce Congress to interfere with questions of slavery, or to take independent steps in relation thereto, are calculated to lead to the most abominable and dangerous consequences; and that all such efforts have an inevitable tendency to diminish the happiness of the people, and endanger the stability and permanency of the Union and ought not to be countenanced by any friend of our political institutions.

Resolved, That the foregoing proposition covers, and was intended to embrace the whole subject of slavery situation in Congress; and therefore the Democratic party of the Union, standing upon this national platform, will abide by and adhere to a faithful execution of the new known as the Compromise measures, set by the last Congress—the act for the returning of fugitives from service or labor included—which act, being designed to carry out an express provision of the Constitution, cannot, with fidelity thereto, be repealed or so changed as to destroy or impair its efficiency.

Resolved, That the Democratic party will resist all attempts at rancor in Congress, or out of it, the agitators of the slavery question, under whatever shape or color the attempt may be made.

WE will state, for the satisfaction of friend Gibbons, of the Plumbago, that our remark last week to the effect that Pierce was 'not even a fourth or fifth-rate man' was intended only to refer to his prominence as a leading Democrat. We repeat it, and more, he is not even a 'fisherite man' in talents statesmanship, if we are allowed to consider that Cass, Buchanan, Douglass, Butler, Marey, &c., are not entirely deficient and are still favor of the Sub-Treasury. Resolutions of 1798, and endorsing the late Mexican War, and rejoicing at the restoration of peace, were also adopted. On the subject of the Compromise and Slavery, the following resolutions were passed:

Resolved, That Congress has no power under the Constitution to interfere with or control the domestic institutions of the several States, and that such States are the sole and proper judges of every thing appropriate by the Constitution, that all efforts of the Abolitionists or others made to induce Congress to interfere with questions of slavery, or to take independent steps in relation thereto, are calculated to lead to the most abominable and dangerous consequences; and that all such efforts have an inevitable tendency to diminish the happiness of the people, and endanger the stability and permanency of the Union and ought not to be countenanced by any friend of our political institutions.

Resolved, That the foregoing proposition covers, and was intended to embrace the whole subject of slavery situation in Congress; and therefore the Democratic party of the Union, standing upon this national platform, will abide by and adhere to a faithful execution of the new known as the Compromise measures, set by the last Congress—the act for the returning of fugitives from service or labor included—which act, being designed to carry out an express provision of the Constitution, cannot, with fidelity thereto, be repealed or so changed as to destroy or impair its efficiency.

Resolved, That the Democratic party will resist all attempts at rancor in Congress, or out of it, the agitators of the slavery question, under whatever shape or color the attempt may be made.

WE will state, for the satisfaction of friend Gibbons, of the Plumbago, that our remark last week to the effect that Pierce was 'not even a fourth or fifth-rate man' was intended only to refer to his prominence as a leading Democrat. We repeat it, and more, he is not even a 'fisherite man' in talents statesmanship, if we are allowed to consider that Cass, Buchanan, Douglass, Butler, Marey, &c., are not entirely deficient and are still favor of the Sub-Treasury. Resolutions of 1798, and endorsing the late Mexican War, and rejoicing at the restoration of peace, were also adopted. On the subject of the Compromise and Slavery, the following resolutions were passed:

Resolved, That Congress has no power under the Constitution to interfere with or control the domestic institutions of the several States, and that such States are the sole and proper judges of every thing appropriate by the Constitution, that all efforts of the Abolitionists or others made to induce Congress to interfere with questions of slavery, or to take independent steps in relation thereto, are calculated to lead to the most abominable and dangerous consequences; and that all such efforts have an inevitable tendency to diminish the happiness of the people, and endanger the stability and permanency of the Union and ought not to be countenanced by any friend of our political institutions.

Resolved, That the foregoing proposition covers, and was intended to embrace the whole subject of slavery situation in Congress; and therefore the Democratic party of the Union, standing upon this national platform, will abide by and adhere to a faithful execution of the new known as the Compromise measures, set by the last Congress—the act for the returning of fugitives from service or labor included—which act, being designed to carry out an express provision of the Constitution, cannot, with fidelity thereto, be repealed or so changed as to destroy or impair its efficiency.

Resolved, That the Democratic party will resist all attempts at rancor in Congress, or out of it, the agitators of the slavery question, under whatever shape or color the attempt may be made.

WE will state, for the satisfaction of friend Gibbons, of the Plumbago, that our remark last week to the effect that Pierce was 'not even a fourth or fifth-rate man' was intended only to refer to his prominence as a leading Democrat. We repeat it, and more, he is not even a 'fisherite man' in talents statesmanship, if we are allowed to consider that Cass, Buchanan, Douglass, Butler, Marey, &c., are not entirely deficient and are still favor of the Sub-Treasury. Resolutions of 1798, and endorsing the late Mexican War, and rejoicing at the restoration of peace, were also adopted. On the subject of the Compromise and Slavery, the following resolutions were passed:

Resolved, That Congress has no power under the Constitution to interfere with or control the domestic institutions of the several States, and that such States are the sole and proper judges of every thing appropriate by the Constitution, that all efforts of the Abolitionists or others made to induce Congress to interfere with questions of slavery, or to take independent steps in relation thereto, are calculated to lead to the most abominable and dangerous consequences; and that all such efforts have an inevitable tendency to diminish the happiness of the people, and endanger the stability and permanency of the Union and ought not to be countenanced by any friend of our political institutions.

Resolved, That the foregoing proposition covers, and was intended to embrace the whole subject of slavery situation in Congress; and therefore the Democratic party of the Union, standing upon this national platform, will abide by and adhere to a faithful execution of the new known as the Compromise measures, set by the last Congress—the act for the returning of fugitives from service or labor included—which act, being designed to carry out an express provision of the Constitution, cannot, with fidelity thereto, be repealed or so changed as to destroy or impair its efficiency.

Resolved, That the Democratic party will resist all attempts at rancor in Congress, or out of it, the agitators of the slavery question, under whatever shape or color the attempt may be made.

WE will state, for the satisfaction of friend Gibbons, of the Plumbago, that our remark last week to the effect that Pierce was 'not even a fourth or fifth-rate man' was intended only to refer to his prominence as a leading Democrat. We repeat it, and more, he is not even a 'fisherite man' in talents statesmanship, if we are allowed to consider that Cass, Buchanan, Douglass, Butler, Marey, &c., are not entirely deficient and are still favor of the Sub-Treasury. Resolutions of 1798, and endorsing the late Mexican War, and rejoicing at the restoration of peace, were also adopted. On the subject of the Compromise and Slavery, the following resolutions were passed:

Resolved, That Congress has no power under the Constitution to interfere with or control the domestic institutions of the several States, and that such States are the sole and proper judges of every thing appropriate by the Constitution, that all efforts of the Abolitionists or others made to induce Congress to interfere with questions of slavery, or to take independent steps in relation thereto, are calculated to lead to the most abominable and dangerous consequences; and that all such efforts have an inevitable tendency to diminish the happiness of the people, and endanger the stability and permanency of the Union and ought not to be countenanced by any friend of our political institutions.

Resolved, That the foregoing proposition covers, and was intended to embrace the whole subject of slavery situation in Congress; and therefore the Democratic party of the Union, standing upon this national platform, will abide by and adhere to a faithful execution of the new known as the Compromise measures, set by the last Congress—the act for the returning of fugitives from service or labor included—which act, being designed to carry out an express provision of the Constitution, cannot, with fidelity thereto, be repealed or so changed as to destroy or impair its efficiency.

Resolved, That the Democratic party will resist all attempts at rancor in Congress, or out of it, the agitators of the slavery question, under whatever shape or color the attempt may be made.

WE will state, for the satisfaction of friend Gibbons, of the Plumbago, that our remark last week to the effect that Pierce was 'not even a fourth or fifth-rate man' was intended only to refer to his prominence as a leading Democrat. We repeat it, and more, he is not even a 'fisherite man' in talents statesmanship, if we are allowed to consider that Cass, Buchanan, Douglass, Butler, Marey, &c., are not entirely deficient and are still favor of the Sub-Treasury. Resolutions of 1798, and endorsing the late Mexican War, and rejoicing at the restoration of peace, were also adopted. On the subject of the Compromise and Slavery, the following resolutions were passed:

Resolved, That Congress has no power under the Constitution to interfere with or control the domestic institutions of the several States, and that such States are the sole and proper judges of every thing appropriate by the Constitution, that all efforts of the Abolitionists or others made to induce Congress to interfere with questions of slavery, or to take independent steps in relation thereto, are calculated to lead to the most abominable and dangerous consequences; and that all such efforts have an inevitable tendency to diminish the happiness of the people, and endanger the stability and permanency of the Union and ought not to be countenanced by any friend of our political institutions.

Resolved, That the foregoing proposition covers, and was intended to embrace the whole subject of slavery situation in Congress; and therefore the Democratic party of the Union, standing upon this national platform, will abide by and adhere to a faithful execution of the new known as the Compromise measures, set by the last Congress—the act for the returning of fugitives from service or labor included—which act, being designed to carry out an express provision of the Constitution, cannot, with fidelity thereto, be repealed or so changed as to destroy or impair its efficiency.

Resolved, That the Democratic party will resist all attempts at rancor in Congress, or out of it, the agitators of the slavery question, under whatever shape or color the attempt may be made.

WE will state, for the satisfaction of friend Gibbons, of the Plumbago, that our remark last week to the effect that Pierce was 'not even a fourth or fifth-rate man' was intended only to refer to his prominence as a leading Democrat. We repeat it, and more, he is not even a 'fisherite man' in talents statesmanship, if we are allowed to consider that Cass, Buchanan, Douglass, Butler, Marey, &c., are not entirely deficient and are still favor of the Sub-Treasury. Resolutions of 1798, and endorsing the late Mexican War, and rejoicing at the restoration of peace, were also adopted. On the subject of the Compromise and Slavery, the following resolutions were passed:

Resolved, That Congress has no power under the Constitution to interfere with or control the domestic institutions of the several States, and that such States are the sole and proper judges of every thing appropriate by the Constitution, that all efforts of the Abolition

Paper Hangings,
CARPETINGS,
House Furnishing Goods, &c.

THE subscribers have just received their Spring Supply of WALL PAPERS, to which they invite the special attention of purchasers. The stock is very large, embracing nearly 500 Patterns, from the richest Gilt to the commonest article, and are almost all entirely new and fresh, and in point of style and beauty, surpass any thing ever before brought to the market. Also, a large and fine assortment of CARPETINGS.

Consisting of Velvet and Brussels Tapestry, 3 and 2 Plys, superfine and fine Ingrain Carpet, &c.

ALL widths, cut to suit the purchaser.

DRAPERY, SPREADS, &c.
Damask of various kinds and colors. Embroidered Laces and Muslin Curtains, &c.

44, 5-4, 6-Canton Matting, white & checked.

House Furnishing Goods,
Embracing a great variety of articles suitable for Housekeepers—all of which they offer as low as similar Goods can be bought west of the mountains.

THOMPSON & VANDALEM,
No. 6, Higgins' Block,
Main St. Lexington, Ky.

NEW BOOKS!

CALL AT R. A. WATTS'

A. He has just received the following, together with many others:

De Quincy's Writings;
Cooper's complete Works;
Irving's "do";

The Shepherd, the Gipsy and the Priest;
Dresden, by Daylight—Car. Cheshire;

Is a Pilgrim—a Pilgrim—&c., &c.

A Reel in a Bottle—Cheverier;

Life of Randolph—Garland;

The Excellent Woman—Prague;

A Pilgrimage to Europe—Smile;

Gillian's Essays;

Wuthenow's Writings;

Clownook, by Alice Carey.

Call and examine, whether you wish to purchase or not.

R. A. WATTS.

Shaker Mattresses.

I HAVE a lot of SHAKER MATTRESSES

on hand and for sale cheap.

J. M. NICHOLS.

Second Arrival,

AT CALDWELL'S.

JUST received, a large and desirable stock of Glassware; Calicoes; Brown, Bleached, and Flaxen; Cottonades; Pickling, &c., &c.

Purchasers will do well to call and examine our present stock.

J. B. CALDWELL.

May 21, '52

Town Ordinance.

ORDERED, That any and every person or persons who may be guilty of placing, in any manner, any wash or dirt of any kind whatever, on any of the streets in the town of Danville, shall, for every such offence, pay a fine of not less than $20, and not more than $50, together with all costs, according to the same, to be collected by the Marshal by warrant, before the Justice of the Peace of Danville, or $500 before the Justice of the Peace for Boys' County. It is further ordered, that this Ordinance be published in the Tribune, and to be force from its publication. By order of the Board of Trustees of the Town of Danville.

V. E. SMITH, C. B. T.

May 7, '52

Carriage Springs.

A few sets of Carriage Springs, just received by D. A. RUSSEL.

White Lead.

PURE and No. 1, also Part Green, dry and ground in oil, just received and for sale at the corner of Main and Third streets, by

May 14 D. A. RUSSEL.

REMOVAL.

THE MARBLE DEPOT of R. L.

FRAYNE has been REMOVED to his new House, on Third street, nearly opposite the Deaf and Dumb Asylum.

May 7, '52

Fresh Baker's Bread.

RAVE commenced the Bread Baking

Business, and intend to keep a fresh supply constantly on hand.

5-10 will deliver to regular customers, if it is desired, or it can be at all times had by calling at his Confectionery and Family Grocery establishment, on Main-street, opposite the Central House.

April 30, '52 T. W. GORE.

Saddlery Hardware.

A LARGE supply just received for

May 14 D. A. RUSSEL.

Flour! Flour!

THE subscribers have recently on hand,

A good supply of Extra, Superior

Flour, which he is selling at a good and reasonable price.

These in want of a good article will call at his Cigar Store, on Main street.

G. F. CORNELIUS.

May 14, '52 ff

Town Ordinance.

NOTICE is hereby given to all concerned, that at a meeting of the Board of Trustees of Danville, held 27th April, 1852, the following Ordinance was passed and ordered to be published:

ORDERED, That all persons living or owning lots on Third street, east side of same, from D. A. Russell's corner to corner of the same, a cheap and magnificent assortment of Irish Linens and Bleached Cottons;

Cotton and French Chintz, a cheap and pretty stock.

Also, a handsome and first rate and large stock of Goods for consisting of a article usually found in retail stores. His stock is full and complete, both in the Fancy and Stipple line. He invites one and all to come and look at them.

Men's and Boys' Wear;

J. H. CALDWELL.

Danville, April 9, '52

SECOND ARRIVAL OF

SPRING AND SUMMER

GOODS,

At the "Lone Star,"

Cash Dry Goods Store!!

WE have just received and are opening,

in addition to our former stock, the following articles:

Solid colored Mountain Delaces;

Berge Delaces—Solid colored Berages;

Gingham and Prints;

Plain and Plain Jacquards;

Swiss Wool—Irish Linen;

Plain and Japanned Edging and Inserting;

Linen Cambric Handkerchiefs;

Brads and Buttons;

Laces—Cotton Damasks;

Black and Long Satin;

Silk, Thread and Cotton Gloves;

Silk Handkerchiefs—Suspenders, &c.

A splendid stock Boots & Shoes;

A fine stock of Hats, Kossuth & others.

The above Goods were purchased at Cash houses, at reduced prices, and we are determined to sell them very low for cash, or in exchange for Produce.

W. B. MORROW & CO.

april 23, '52 ff

Wrought Nails and Brads.

JUST received and for sale by

J. H. NAYT.

Danville and Lexington Railroad.

150 Men Wanted

No pay those ready-made Coats, Pants

and Vests that are offered at such low

les at

ARMSTRONG S.

april 20, '52 ff

Hemp! Hemp!

WE are giving Dry Goods and Groceries for HEMP.

W. B. MORROW & CO.

april 23 ff

600 DOZEN Mayesville Coffee Tubs,

600 assorted numbers, for sale by

BENJ. BOLING.

Wrought Nails and Brads.

JUST received and for sale by

J. H. NAYT.

Danville and Lexington Railroad.

150 Men Wanted

No pay those ready-made Coats, Pants

and Vests that are offered at such low

les at

ARMSTRONG S.

april 20, '52 ff

MOASSES.—A fresh supply of Golden

Syrup and Molasses just received and for sale by

T. W. GORE.

april 20, '52 ff

4 Hogsheads Sugar.

WE just received a fresh supply of N.

O. SUGAR, which I am selling at Low

Prices for Cash, either by the barrel or any small quantity.

T. W. GORE.

april 20, '52 ff

INKS—Black, Blue and Red INKS, warranted very superior, for sale by

A. S. MCGROarty.

april 20, '52 ff

COLLINS' History of Kentucky.

50 COPIES for sale at the Bookstore of

R. A. WATTS.

april 20, '52 ff

IRON.—$20,000

Pounds Red River, well assured, just received on consignment, and for sale by

D. A. RUSSEL.

april 20, '52 ff

COLLINS' History of Kentucky.

50 COPIES for sale at the Bookstore of

R. A. WATTS.

april 20, '52 ff

COLLINS' History of Kentucky.

50 COPIES for sale at the Bookstore of

R. A. WATTS.

april 20, '52 ff

COLLINS' History of Kentucky.

50 COPIES for sale at the Bookstore of

R. A. WATTS.

april 20, '52 ff

COLLINS' History of Kentucky.

50 COPIES for sale at the Bookstore of

R. A. WATTS.

april 20, '52 ff